Take time out to explore Dorset this autumn...

This may be one of the most peaceful and unspoilt parts of the country, but it offers something for everyone, all year round. Enjoy a choice of coastal resorts with safe, sandy beaches and a unique Jurassic coastline, designated as a World Heritage Site. Discover breathtaking landscapes, traditional market towns and thatched cottage villages. Dorset is renowned for its delicious, local produce which you can sample in the many pubs and restaurants or at one of our popular Farmers' Markets.

Walking and cycling routes criss-cross the county and are a great way to discover Dorset's literary connections with Thomas Hardy, TE Lawrence and Enid Blyton.

There's a whole host of attractions and events offering entertainment. However you like to spend your time away, you'll find plenty to experience. Start planning your break today and explore Dorset from the country to the coast.
